

STEREO [1985] JAZZLAND

The Soulful Piano of Junior Mance

and, according to the brilliant definition of "soulful" as emotional warmth, Junior Mance was not accustomed to give the contents of his album. Once you have heard the rickety early sound of the Mance approach to soul music, you're apt to feel that the dictionary writers must have had Junior in mind at the time. For it would be difficult to find language and more moving music of warmth and deep feeling than those already here by this simply blue-eyed pianist and his colleagues - THE JUNIOR MANCE TRIO.

JAZZLAND

JLP 9305
ENK-0054

The Soulful Piano of JUNIOR MANCE

JUNIOR MANCE, piano MIN FUKKER, bass
BOBBY FROGAL, drums -- playing
Side 1: The Sighs (MS); Rajah's Blue Blues (MS)
Blue Blues (MS); Swirling in Your Arms (MS)
Playhouse (MS); Side B, Sweet and Lovely (MS)
De-Wu-Dee (MS); I Don't Care (MS); Swingin' Time (MS)
Recorded in New York City: October 18, 1948

About His NEW Jazzland Recording --

The album marks the first appearance of a new trio led by a soul music pianist and finds young pianoist Junior Mance leading a great new trio of jazz and soul music.

Admittedly, Mance has been previously noted as the most soulful and soulful pianist in the jazz world. He is a soulful pianist who plays with a soulful touch. He is a soulful pianist who plays with a soulful touch. He is a soulful pianist who plays with a soulful touch.

This major announcement that Washington and played with such groups as (Continued on page 10)

...and it was a very good one. He is a soulful pianist who plays with a soulful touch. He is a soulful pianist who plays with a soulful touch. He is a soulful pianist who plays with a soulful touch.

Junior Mance, Min Fucker, Bobby Frogal

Other Jazzland releases include:
The Resurgence of BOB DYLAN - JLP 9301
Side B - Blues
Side C - Blues
Side D - Blues
Side E - Blues
Side F - Blues
Side G - Blues
Side H - Blues
Side I - Blues
Side J - Blues

JAZZLAND RECORDS are produced by BILL GRAUER PRODUCTIONS, Inc. 220 West 56th Street, New York 28, N. Y.

For greater information, contact Bill Grauer at 220 West 56th Street, New York 28, N. Y.

