"Cool jazz"

How often the term is applied, with honor and often deserved esteem, to recordings that are, in fact, of a more temperate...

It has been so applied, however, both unjustly and even more unjustly, to a number of the recordings of the Miles Davis Quintet...

One year after their recording, all eleven of them, they were made in three recording sessions on January 22 and April 22, 1956, and March 29, 1958. When the first of the very...

It is not Miles who drives these all together, with nothing but general agreement, the rubber-stamp team...
