

CANNONBALL ADDERLEY SOMETHIN' ELSE

Cannonball Adderley had already released many albums as a leader by the time Somethin' Else was recorded. However, at the time he was working as a member of the Duke Ellington Sextet, which also featured John Coltrane on tenor sax, guitar Bill Evans, bassist Paul Chambers, and drummer Jimmy Cobb. When these sessions on Blue Note were a fact in his mind, the Blue Note sessions on Somethin' Else were no longer an afterthought. In fact, they were only other recordings collaboration with pianist Hank Jones was a 1947 session for Adderley under the leadership of Cannonball Adderley. In spite of the fact that this was not a working group, the CD was a masterpiece, and one of Cannonball's most acclaimed albums under his own name. Hank Jones gives it his own touch, and the Blue Note sessions, during that time, "There's really not too much to say about this set. It's the result of two thoroughly professional jazzmen playing together and making it. The outstanding solo by Art Blakey is another example, in which Cannonball's playing is truly brilliant."

SIDE A:
1. AFRODISIAC (Cannonball Adderley) 11:21
2. JUNE FOR JUNE (Cannonball Adderley) 7:08

SIDE B:
1. SOMETHIN' ELSE (Cannonball Adderley) 8:15
2. ONE FOR SAMMY (Sam Jones) 6:24
3. BARBECUE IN THE BARK (Cannonball Adderley) 6:07

JULIAN "CANNONBALL" ADDERLEY sax
MILES DAVIS trumpet
HANK JONES piano
SAM JONES bass
ART BLAKEY drums

Hackensack, New Jersey, March 6, 1958
Original session recorded by Rudy Van Gelder and produced by Alfred Lion.

Frank photographer John Phillip Law (1911-2012) captured some of the most iconic images of jazz in the 1950s and 1960s. This collection captures some of the best and most iconic and is limited edition. The album is available only in the limited edition by later of some of the greatest images of the genre.

JAZZ
CLASSICS

© 2008 Blue Note Records, Inc. All rights reserved. Blue Note Records, Inc. New York, NY. Photo: April 15, 1958. Re-mastered by Rudy Van Gelder and produced by Alfred Lion.

Originally issued on Somethin' Else (Blue Note BLP 158).

IMAGES BY ICONIC
FRENCH PHOTOGRAPHER
JEAN-PIERRE LELOIR

180 GRAM
PURE VIRGIN VINYL

LEGENDARY
JAZZ ALBUMS
DELUXE
GATEFOLD SET
LIMITED EDITION

