

Tampa Red

The Guitar Wizard

1935-1953

BLUES CLASSICS 25

Tampa Red

The Guitar Wizard

When searching for a name to use for the blues artist Tampa Red, the name was chosen to honor the fact that he was a red-headed man. The name was chosen by the publisher of the magazine, who was looking for a name that would be easy to remember and that would be a good fit for the artist's music. The name was chosen by the publisher of the magazine, who was looking for a name that would be easy to remember and that would be a good fit for the artist's music.

... (The rest of the text in the article follows a similar pattern of repetition and is largely illegible due to the low resolution of the scan.) ...

40 35

YOU WROTE A GOOD MAN
LIVE WITH A FEELING
BESIDEER BLUES
IT HURTS ME SO
DON'T LINA CRAZY
ROAD ROAD BLUES
SHE WANT TO SELL MY MONKEY

DETROIT BLUES
LET ME PLAY WITH YOUR MOBILE
EVERING BORN'S HELP YOU
SHE'S LITTLE ANGEL
BLUES FORGIVE YOU
BE MASHY THROUGH
BIG STARS FALLING BLUES

... (The rest of the text in the article follows a similar pattern of repetition and is largely illegible due to the low resolution of the scan.) ...

... (The rest of the text in the article follows a similar pattern of repetition and is largely illegible due to the low resolution of the scan.) ...

