

The ROLLING STONES are back this year... they are a way of life. A way of life that has inspired the imagination of a generation's imagination, and built their own world inside their group. In London, it began with their singing on the streets, in the parks, their music, and the power of their group was with them when they were still working their way up to the top. Their music, their style, their way of life, their attitude, their energy, their passion, their group was a way of life. It was a way of life that has inspired a generation's imagination, and built their own world inside their group.
