

STEREO

IT SERVE
YOU RIGHT TO SUFFER

JOHN LEE
HOOKER

“It Serve You Right To Suffer” - John Lee Hooker (voc, g); William Wells (tb); Milt Hinton (b); Barry Galbraith (g); David 'Panama' Francis (dr)

AS AIPJ 9103

Format: 2LPs 45rpm /gatefold sleeve

Manufacturer: Acoustic Sounds

Release date: 25.07.2010

John Lee Hooker himself did not know his exact date of birth. If he hadn't died at around the age of 80, this ageless musician would still be easily pulling the next generation to his gigs. Hooker remains a phenomenon, a mysterious figure of black rhythm and blues, a charismatic king who reigns supreme in rock 'n' roll's Hall of Fame. John W. Peters described his music as a synthesis of scorching emotional ardour, unrelenting rhythmic intensity, and original poetry of a highly personal character. Anyone hearing him for the first time may well be startled at the unfiltered passion and power of his music.

And another surprise is in store for those who compare Hooker's late recordings with those made in the Sixties. His unmistakable, raw voice has fully matured, but his incantatory style of singing appears markedly finer and more flexible. And then there is the perfect gem of a rhythm group whose sinewy sounds fill the grooves with merciless gravitational force. It's enough to make your spine tingle!