THIS BIG BAND
JUST HAS TO COME BACK

by Mike Hennessey

Will the big bands ever come back? Well, there's one that certainly must and it's led by Kenny Clarke and Francy Boland.

In a fantastic fornight at Ronnie Scott's which broke attendance records and attracted royal patronage in person of Princess Margaret, these 30 musical missionaries from six different countries more than lived up to their billing as one of the great big bands.
